

Chinese: A2–Course description

- ▶ This course covers frequently used vocabulary as well as simple and specific sentences. It addresses two specific Chinese grammatical forms: aspect markers, and complements.
- ▶ The teaching materials use practice-orientated dialogues and texts, so that course participants learn not only the content, but also the contextual use of the grammar.
- ▶ Pronunciation is a core focus of this course.
- ▶ During this course, the vocabulary of the participants will increase to about 1,000 words, and their understanding of Chinese expanded. Communicative strategies for everyday situations will be developed.
